Walker Given Twenty Years for the Murder of Lamar.

THREE YEARS FOR ROBBERY

Heroic Work of Firemen Save a Department.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., October 13.-Judge Bryan to-day sentenced Adrian Walker to the penitentlary for a term of twenty years for killing Eugene Lamar in Kernersville August 9th. Before sentence was imposed the prisoner asked for permissing to make a brief statement. He plead for mercy of the court, saying that his father died when he was young; that he drifted off early in life with bad associates and began drinking. These influences, held, were responsible for his present troubles.

held, were responsible for his present troubles.

Guerney Quate, who plead guilty to shooting J. A. Reed and firing at Thos. Reed, and who was given one year on the county roads in each case, was convicted of holding up a man and forcing him to give Quate 35 cents. The defendant was indicted for robbery, and the jury said he was guilty. Judge Bryan gave the prisoner three years in the penitentiary, this sentence to begin at the expiration of the two years on the roads.

The Winston-Salem firemen saved The Winston-Salem firemen saved Schouler's Department Stores, if not the entire block at the corner of Liberty and Fourth Streets, from destruction this morning. The damage to Mr. Schouler's large stock of dry goods by smoke will aggregate several thusand dollars. He thinks the loss, however, is covered by insurance. The fire started in the basement, and evidently originated from the furnace.

CHARLOTTE. N. C., October 13.—
Thomas Dixon, Jr., author of the Clansman, is a Charlotte visitor, a guest of R. M. Brannon. In an interview this afternoon, Mr. Dixon stated that he will make more money out of this one play, the Clansman, than out of all the books he has yet written or could write the rest of his days, if he did nothing clae. The author's royalites alone, which form but a small part of his income from 11, now amount to more than five hundred dollars a week.

now amount to more than five hundred dollars a week.

He will go to Columbia to-morrow, and will follow the company for a week. Mr. Dixon has not yet closed a contract with any Now York theatre, holding off until he can secure a large playhouse. He expects the play to have a full season's run in the metropolis. Mr. Dixon is now engaged on another play and book, the play to precede the book. This new play will also deal with the Ku Klux Klan, and will be called "The Traitor."
